

West Hawaii

West Hawaii Community Coalition Coordinator Pat Fleck, is thrilled to introduce Ellen Cunningham, a dedicated leader in the West Hawaii Coalition and within the community.

Ellen is an independent consultant to nonprofit organizations, providing a broad spectrum of services encompassing strategic planning, program development and management, training, marketing, and the identification of potential funders through grants and scholarships. She assisted the East Hawaii Coalition by co-facilitating their 2012 Planning Meeting held on August 12th. Ellen brings a multitude of knowledge and skills to the Coalition through her extensive experience as Senior Program Officer, Director of Community Relations, Sales & Business Management, and Vice President of Corporate Banking.

“Ellen goes above and beyond the call of duty” says Pat; “She is truly a remarkable woman whom I commend for her extraordinary volunteerism.” In addition to Ellen’s involvement in the West Hawaii Coalition, she is active in the community as a Rotarian in the Rotary Club of Kona Sunrise; Executive Committee member of Lifeplan Institute Hawaii Island, a mentoring program for Big Island teenagers; President of Hawaii Island Growing Our Own Teachers; Organizer for the Kapilina Garden Brick Project, which in partnership with the County gives recognition to outstanding community nonprofits in a display of engraved bricks at the new West Hawaii Civic Center.

Mahalo nui loa Ellen for your significant contributions to West Hawaii and the Coalition for Tobacco-Free Hawaii.
